HULETTE.

Death has entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Rice, of near Buchanan, and claimed for its victim their youngest child, Lucille.

She was born Jan. 3, 1909, died Feb. 1, 1911. A sweet angel spirit sent with a message of love to those dotting hearts, teaching them the frailty and uncertainty of all Twining herself by so many little acts of endearment so closely around their warmest affections that when the silver cord was loosed she bore along with her in her upward flight to those blissful realms, a tital in death, who could look unmoved upon that graceful little deep and abiding love that had seemed for a little season to have been drawn away by life.

Beautiful in life surpassingly beautiful in death, so perfect in loveliness, so sweetly robed in its spotless dress of white, and wonder not that the last look of the agonized mother was so long and full of anguish.

While it seems so hard to give little Lucille up, remember that Jesus said "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Sleep on in thy beauty. Thou sweet angel child, By sorrow unlighted, By sin undefiled, —L. O'D.
